EUROPEAN MEDIEVAL BATTLEFIELDS

Arc Humanities Press (Arc) operates as a specialist imprint, with a focus on premodern studies, in partnership with Amsterdam University Press (AUP). It was established as the publishing arm of the learned society for medieval studies worldwide CARMEN Worldwide Medieval Network, and comprises a dozen acquisitions and publishing experts from around the world. In partnering with AUP, Arc offers all the advantages of continental Europe’s largest university press, including worldwide distribution, whilst offering authors the benefits of dealing with a highly motivated team of medieval and early modern specialists.

Supported by the CARMEN Worldwide Medieval Network, European Medieval Battlefields is an exciting new, curated series. Each of the monographs will present an overview of a key European battle in the medieval era. As well as describing the strategy and outcome of the battle itself, the authors place the conflict within the wider history of the European continent. They also discuss the relevance of the battle and the battlesite in contemporary memory and myth-making, and conclude by examining how this heritage is preserved and conveyed to new generations.

Geographical Scope

Medieval Europe

Chronological Scope

400 – 1500

Keywords: Medieval military history, medieval international politics, medieval battlesites, conflict landscapes, memory studies, military cultural heritage

Proposals Welcome

Submissions are welcomed of collections that follow quite closely the model of earlier volumes in the series. These are typically well illustrated, with 70,000 or more words.

Further Information

Please contact the Acquisitions Editor, Danièle Cybulskie (daniele.cybulskie@arc-humanities.org).

SERIES EDITORS & BOARD

LUIS ADÃO DE FONSECA
University of Porto

JOÃO GOUEVIA MONTEIRO
University of Coimbra

AXEL MÜLLER
University of Leeds

CRISTINA PIMENTA
University of Porto
cristina_pimenta@sapo.pt