BEYOND MEDIEVAL EUROPE

Arc Humanities Press (Arc) operates as a specialist imprint, with a focus on premodern studies, in partnership with Amsterdam University Press (AUP). It was established as the publishing arm of the learned society for medieval studies worldwide CARMEN Worldwide Medieval Network, and comprises a dozen acquisitions and publishing experts from around the world. In partnering with AUP, Arc offers all the advantages of continental Europe’s largest university press, including worldwide distribution, whilst offering authors the benefits of dealing with a highly motivated team of medieval and early modern specialists.

Beyond Medieval Europe publishes monographs and edited volumes that evoke medieval Europe’s geographic, cultural, and religious diversity, while highlighting the interconnectivity of the entire region, understood in the broadest sense – from Dublin to Constantinople, Novgorod to Toledo. The individuals who inhabited this expansive territory built cities, cultures, kingdoms, and religions that impacted their locality and the world around them in manifold ways.

Geographical Scope
Europe, including Central and Eastern Europe, Scandinavia and the Baltic, as well as the Latin East during the Crusades

Chronological Scope
793–1453

Keywords: interconnectivity, medieval eastern Europe, wider medieval Europe, Byzantium, Baltic world, center/periphery relations, micro-Christendoms

Proposals Welcome
The series is particularly keen to include studies on traditionally underrepresented subjects in Anglophone scholarship (such as medieval eastern Europe) and to consider submissions from scholars not natively writing in English in an effort to increase the diversity of Anglophone publishing on the greater medieval European world. Submissions may be monographs or edited volumes of 70,000 or more words (particularly of interest in this regard are volumes which bring together the work of scholars from various disciplines and modern regions), or shorter “minigraphs” of 45,000 to 60,000 words.
