Saturday, 29 September 2007 – morning

07:00 onwards      Breakfast in hotel

09:00                Palazzo Vaj – 3 stalls in the Lobby adjacent to the Salone, 1-2 stalls in the Piccolo Bar, and 5-6 stalls in Breakout Lounges 1 and 2 (behind the Piccolo Bar), Sala Veneziana and Reading Room:

The Market-Place

Objective: Participants are encouraged during this period to ‘go shopping’ and visit stalls which present the projects that were created at Budapest and the new ‘embryonic projects’ which can perhaps grow into fully-fledged projects suitable for major funding applications

Stallholders include:

1. Various projects – Centre for Medieval Studies, University of York
2. Interfaces: Vernacular Voices and Latin Narratives, c. 900-1200. The cross-fertilization between Latin and Vernacular story-worlds has rarely been thematized – Elizabeth Tyler, York & Lars Boje Mortensen, Bergen & Southern Denmark
3. The Consortium of European Research Libraries (CERL)
4. Cultural Exchanges: England / France / Flanders / Netherlands – MEDEMS, University of Auckland
5. UK Medieval Manuscripts Research Consortium – various projects (‘Geographies of orthodoxy’; ‘Identification of scribes responsible for copying major ME works’; ‘Production and use of English MSS, 1060-1220’; ‘The Vernon MS project’)
6. Une histoire des cultures latines en Europe médiévale / A History of Latin Cultures in Medieval Europe – LAMOP, CNRS / Université Paris 1 – Panthéon-Sorbonne
7. Data and Image Archiving – Digital Research Infrastructure for the Arts and Humanities (DARIAH)
8. Biblical Cultures (pursued through individual ‘medieval studies’ components in various disciplines as well as overarching historiographical components. Key focus: biblical reception and cultural perceptions of the Bible - Centre for the Study of the Cultural Heritage of Medieval Rituals, University of Copenhagen)
9. Cuius Regio (European regions which cross modern-day political boundaries) – Onderzoekschool Mediëvistiek & Rijksuniversiteit Groningen, plus Bochum
10. Various projects – Centre for Medieval Studies, University of Bristol
11. Multilingual Data-Capture, from incunabula onwards – Word Pro, Pondicherry
